

New Chitose Airport International Animation Festival 2018
Submission Regulations for Animated Feature Film Competition

1. Organization

The New Chitose Airport International Animation Festival 2018 is organized by the New Chitose Airport International Animation Festival Executive Committee and the New Chitose Airport International Animation Festival Office.

2. Objectives

The New Chitose Airport International Animation Festival was founded to support the discovery of creative expression as inspiration for future development, and to promote such expression worldwide. The festival also intends to create a new forum for international exchange through the artistic culture of animation with New Chitose Airport as a base.

3. Festival period

From November 2 to November 5, 2018

4. Film submission period

From April 16 to July 31, 2018

5. Submission requirements

- (1) Submissions must be animated films with a run time exceeding 30 minutes, including end credits (all animation techniques acceptable).
- (2) Submissions must be works completed in or after 2016.
- (3) The director or the producer of the film or the entrant must hold the right to screen the film submitted, and all rights to screen the work during the festival must have been secured.
- (4) The entrant should make the submission available for Internet streaming. Submissions by post are not accepted.
- (5) Films that have previously been submitted to the past editions of the festival will not be accepted.

Multiple submissions from the same entrant are accepted as long as the above conditions are satisfied for each one. Individual films must be entered separately.

6. Entry fee

There is no entry fee.

7. Submission methods

7-1. Online Submission Form

- (1) Complete the Online Submission Form (incl. the fields for information on the film and the director) on the event's official website or FilmFreeway.
